AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN.

General News Items Gathered West of

Robert H. Phillips, aged thirty-five, was ormally placed under arrest yesterday by Policeman George Edwards on a charge of riolating the police regulations in erecting an awning without a permit. Mr. Phillips is the superintendent of the Arlington and Falls Church Electric railroad, the Georgefown office of which was a few days ago removed from the old Key mansion to 3530 M street, one of the row of buildings near the Aqueduct bridge. The superintendent was notified to be in court yesterday, but owing to the demands of business could not do so and the case against him was continued.

not do so and the case against him was continued.

The residents of 32d and P streets, northeast corner, and people who use the crossing at that point, are complaining about the condition of a catch basin. To accommodate the railroad the curbing at the corner was thrown back several feet to the rear of the catch basin, which is now out in the roadway, covered by a large stone, but leaving a large aperture for the passage of refuse water. The place surrounding is covered with mud, rendering the use of the crossing dangerous and disagreeable.

A permit has been issued to Messrs. Weaver and Hall, who recently purchased the old Columbia mills on Water street, near the Aqueduct bridge, to make some minor repairs to the large structure. As stated in The Star, the place will be fitted up and used as an artificial ice manufactory. It is expected the plant will be in operation before the warm season sets in.

David L. Reynolds has sold for George W. Batsue to P. T. Moran, 1828 38d street, being part of lot 234, square 1290. No consideration is named in the transfer.

Richard Harper has taken out a permit to erect a two-story frame dwelling on the Little Falls road.

PRESENTED TO DEWEY.

Invitation to Paducah, Ky., Accompanied by Twenty-Year-Old Whisky.

Representative Wheeler of Kentucky pre ented Admiral and Mrs. Dewey yesterday with an invitation to visit Paducah, Ky The invitation was inclosed in an oak casket decorated in gold and silver. The invi tation was engraved on a sheet of curled birch. Inside the casket are twelve quart bottles of twenty-year-old Kentucky whisky and a cut-glass decanter incased in silver. On one side of the decanter is inscribed the brand of the whisky, and the other bears this greeting: "Admiral and Mrs. Dewey: We extend greetings, and earnestly request that you visit Paducah, thus honoring our city and citizens."

Admiral Dewey was presented yesterday also with a souvenir album by the New York Commercial. The book is a large leather-bound volume with an illuminated, illustrated title page setting forth in detail the service Dewey rendered to his country by the destruction of the Spanish fleet, and the first sheet of autographs contains the signatures of President McKinley and each member of his cabinet. Then follow the autographs of several hundred of the distinguished and influential men in New York city, including prominent financiers and journalists. tation was engraved on a sheet of curled dress of black lace over white silk. The bride came in with her father, preceded by the groom and his best man, Mr. John T. Sanford of Baltimore, a member of the Maryland legislature. Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe, pastor of the New York Avenue Church, performed the ceremony. The bride's dress was of white satin, very richly embroidered. It had a yoke effect of shirred mousseline de soie and point lace trimmings. A diamond pendant, one of her gifts from her father and mother, was morn. A cluster of orange blossoms held her tulle veil and the large bouquet she carried was of white illacs.

Miss Gorman wore a pretty dress of pale blue crepe and Miss Mary Edna Gorman wore turquoise crepe de chene. The groom's mother, Mrs. Stephen Gambrill, wore black silk and point lace.

Among the out-of-town relatives present were Mr. and Mrs. Marriott, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gorman and the Misses Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Warfield and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ober, all of Baltimore; Mrs. Hillagass of Philadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gorman of Laurel, Md.

The bride's presents were not only numerous, but very valuable. They included quantities of silver and other table adornments and articles of jewelry. Mr. and Mrs. Gambrill left this afternoon for their wedding trip and will make their future home in Boston. The bride's going-away costume was of a dark blue tailor-made cloth.

The "chantant" in the British embassy ball room yesterday, given under the direction of the Misses Preston of New York, was a great success in every particular. Not only was the ball room thronged, but the overflow extended into all the adjoining apartments, the hall and filled the staircase. The entertainment, which included solos by Mr. Heathe Gregory and Mr. Hobart Smock. Miss Nickens and Miss Julie Vallette, with Miss Josephine May Mack at the piano, and a dialect monologue by Miss Anna Vernon Dorsey, had as its middle number a Spanish dance by Miss Rose Antoinette Preston, which was most gracefully performed and loudly applauded. The list of patronesses included the names of the most prominent hostesses in Washington, and added to these there were present several hundred other notables in the official and resident world. The British ambassador and Lady Pauncefote, with their daughters, were assiduous in their attentions for the comfort of all those present. Mr. and Mrs. Gerome Desio and Mr. Victor E. Desio entertained a large number of friends Easter Monday evening at their home, 1242 10th street. The pariors and dining room were set with palms, Easter Illies and potted flowers of other varieties, while the table decorations were pink, the scheme effect being carried out with roses; hyacinths and carnations. The guests, about forty-five in number, were received in the front parior by the host and hostess of the evening, and after supper had been served were entertained with a delightful musical program, which included vocal solos by Misses Donnelly and Pistorio and a phonograph concert of some thirty selections.

The last meeting for this season of the Le Droit Euchre Club was held last night at Freund's and a great surprise awaited the lady members of the club upon their assembling by finding that the gentiemen had arranged an elaborate banquet, and the entire matter was so carefully arranged and well planned that not until the doors were thrown open and musical strains pealed forth from the hidden orchestra did they realize to its fullest extent the surprise that awaited them. The banquet room was beautifully adorned with flags, palms and flowers. After the sumptuous repast had been served and with wittlelsms indulged in to the merriment of the party adjournment was had to the card room and a lively contest began, in which Mrs. B. A. The Choral Society. An interesting event in connection with the Choral Society's operatic composers' concert, which will occur on Friday evening, April 27, will be the first public appearance in this country of Herr Albert Wolffungen, late of the Royal Berlin Opera Company, who has only been in this country about four weeks and whom the society has been very fortunate in securing for this event. They will therefore have nine soloists on this occasion: Sopranos, Miss Sara Anderson and Miss Mary Helen Howe; contralto, Miss Mabelle Louise Bond: tenors, Herr Wolffungen, Mr. Charles A. Kalser and Mr. W. D. McFarland; baritone, Mr. Jukan Walker; bassos, Mr. Myron W. Whitney, ir., and Mr. Bernard A. Ryan, or more than double the number of soloists usually presented by this organization at any one concert.

Herr Wolffungen sings all German and Italian operas, and will render solo numbers from Verdi and Wagner. He has a very powerful and dramatic tenor voice of the kind that will capture the audience. His studies have been pursued abroad under Stockhausen and others, and he is well known on the continent as an operatic and concert singer, well versed as well in oratorio and German lieder. He has never before been in this country and the society feels gratified in being the means of giving the first introduction to an American audience of a singer of considerable merit. the Choral Society's operatic composers oncert, which will occur on Friday even-
